

HISTORY'S WORST PREDICTIONS

“The Beatles have no future in show business.”

— Decca Records, 1962

Y2K is “a crisis without precedent in human history.”

— Edmund DeJesus, BYTE Magazine, 1998

“Minimum wage could be [a] decisive issue in key...election battlegrounds.”

— Public Policy Polling, October 2014

Labor groups’ past predictions on the political value of raising the minimum wage have been a total flop. Most voters don’t judge candidates on their position regarding the minimum wage.*
